

The Winners of The 6th Kobayashi Foundation Award

Part 1 (Researchers)

Title of Research	Applicant
	Institution	First Name	Last Name	Country/Region
Development of personalized therapy for management of advance stage non-small cell lung cancer	The Chinese University of Hong Kong (CUHK)	Tony	Mok	Hong Kong, China
Selection Reason
Professor Tony Mok is recognized as a global leader in oncology, especially in lung cancer in Asia with significant contributions to develop cancer chemotherapy. He has led a number of multi-national clinical trials in non-small cell lung cancer area to develop molecular targeted therapeutics and immune checkpoint inhibitors to EGFR or ALK mutation positive lung cancer. His outstanding achievements have been published in many important medical journals.

Part 2 (Healthcare Professionals and/or Medical Teams)

(in alphabetical order)

Subject for Medical Services	Applicant
	Institution	First Name	Last Name	Country/Region
The Development of Cancer Care Network using Electronic Consultation and Referral System (E-consult) for Treatment of Patients with Solid Tumors in Southern Thailand	Unit of Medical Oncology, Department of Internal Medicine, Faculty of Medicine, Prince of Songkla University	Arunee	Dechaphunkul	Thailand
Selection Reason
A medical oncologists team, Unit of Medical Oncology, Prince of Songkla University has successfully built a cancer care network of medical oncologists using "E-Consult" system to reduce the time and cost required from consultation to treatment. The team including Dr. Arunee Dechaphunkul has accelerated the expansion of cancer treatment in Southern part of Thailand.
Subject for Medical Services	Applicant
	Institution	First Name	Last Name	Country/Region
Cancer Patients and the community for comprehensive cancer care	Nepal Cancer Hospital and Research Center	Sudip	Shrestha	Nepal
Selection Reason
Dr. Sudip Shrestha has been involved in cancer research, consultation and clinical trials for many years, and he took leadership in establishing Nepal Cancer Hospital and Research Center. He has been successful in contributing to comprehensive cancer treatment in Nepal.				